

DENNIS STAGLIANO'S KENTUCKY DERBY DAY TIP SHEET

Kentucky Derby: Always Dreaming: Todd Pletcher, the trainer, has one Derby winner in 43 tries, but he has Hall of Famer Johnny V in the irons and this horse's 36.56 finish in the last 3/8 of a mile in the Florida Derby indicates he should run down the pace setters and win the Derby. Irish War Cry: Won 3 in a row to start career then ran poorly in Fountain of Youth before bouncing back in Wood Memorial. Effort in the Wood sets him up for a good race coming off good works. McCracken: His fondness for Churchill Downs is a plus (3 for 3), as is his preference to come off the pace bodes well in this spot. A horse for the course that wouldn't surprise me if he comes out on top. Hence: Finished strong in the Sunland Derby, coming from "way back" to beat the field by more than three lengths. Hence I expect Hence to come into the picture late in the stretch. Irap: Front-running colt broke his maiden in the Bluegrass Stakes, whose winner hasn't won the Derby since 1991, but good works lend me to believe he may be a threat in the superfecta. Tapwrit: Tapwrit has really looked good coming into the Derby. Fabulous works at Churchill makes this guy a live longshot.
