DENNIS STAGLIANO'S SARATOGA PICKS FOR TODAY

★ BEST BET

Race 6 – #2 Liberty Rising

#2 Liberty Rising is the strongest play on today's Saratoga program. He owns enough tactical speed to secure favorable early position without becoming involved in a damaging pace battle, and his best dirt efforts compare favorably with this field. The six-furlong distance suits his running style, while the inside draw should allow Dylan Davis to save ground before asking him for his best run approaching the quarter pole. With a clean break and a clear path through the stretch, #2 Liberty Rising has an excellent opportunity to take control late and deliver the day's most dependable winning performance.

★ BEST VALUE PLAY

Race 5 – #4 Cadillac Mary

#4 Cadillac Mary offers the best wagering value on the program. While several well-meant first-time starters deserve respect, #4 Cadillac Mary has shown enough ability to suggest a breakthrough performance is well within reach. The five-and-one-half furlong turf distance should suit her natural speed, and a patient stalking trip could put her in perfect position to challenge entering the stretch. If the favorites encounter any adversity, #4 Cadillac Mary has the talent to capitalize and reward players with an attractive price while becoming a key horse in exactas, trifectas and multi-race wagers.

★ LIVE LONGSHOT

Race 8 – #7 Reputation

#7 Reputation is the longshot capable of lighting up the tote board. Seven-furlong dirt races at Saratoga often produce generous prices when the early pace becomes contested, and this filly has more ability than her expected odds indicate. A lively early duel would play directly into her running style, allowing her to produce one sustained rally through the stretch. Even if she falls just short of victory, #7 Reputation has every opportunity to crash the exacta, trifecta and superfecta at rewarding odds, making her an outstanding exotic play for value-minded bettors.

RACE 1 – Maiden Claiming $35,000 • 7 Furlongs • Dirt • Purse $52,000
